What you should know about early surrender of your Insurance Policy

1. An insurance policy is intended to meet your long-term financial needs. Therefore, it may be disadvantageous for you to surrender a policy before its maturity date. Some disadvantages are:

- You are losing valuable benefits from the policy:
 - You are losing the insurance protection offered by your policy;
 - You may not be able to achieve your intended financial objective;
 - This may result in losing the financial benefit accumulated over the years.
- It may not be possible for you to obtain a similar level of protection on the same terms in the future.
 - You may not be insurable on standard terms;
 - You may have to pay a higher premium in view of higher age;
 - Surrendering your insurance policy for another policy could result in higher premiums and loss of specific policy features due to changes in age or health.

2. Additional Charges/Fees

If you surrender your policy and then buy a new policy or other investment product you will incur new charges. These may include:

- Distribution Fee

Commission is paid to Agents/Financial Advisers on all new insurance policies / investment products.

- Policy Fee

A policy fee is usually incurred for each policy.

3. Other Options

If your policy has acquired a cash value, you may choose to:

- Apply for a cash loan to meet short term financial needs; or
- Convert to a reduced or paid up extended term insurance policy; or
- Reduce the policy regular premiums (applicable only to regular premiums policies).

Therefore, it is important to seek advice from your Adviser before early surrender of your policy.
